there was a bridge with Allen from the church to a parallel reality that we soon moved into with Alan just ~~[illegible]~~ around the block
this being our [illegible] through the end of elementary, into & through both Middle & High school we [illegible] ... 4 square & created Giant 4 Square using 4 4 square courts together to play one giant game.

the next year we had the Swings... where we weren't interested from jumping, but more on how not to jump out, & the good duties brought closer & closer until we jumped backwards & got another, losing drive. the next year we had the Wandering, a 2 year & beyond fake cult... where we wandered around in circles,
"worshipped" our friend, dubbed, "the Wandering Tree" along with the worship of Blue M&Ms for melting in our mouths & not in our hands High School came around, Allan's mother, as it is said, wanted Allan to go to a different school than I.. He created "the Stuff Club" over there.
- over at Mt Pleasant, worried about having new friends.. immediately had Dustin Snider in all my classes first day.
I had friends & my worries were relieved.

We created Identity N/A.. from the group that founded the Wall.
4 years of High School... immediately across from ROTC we all created FI:EO who Home Based at the Garage at my house.

PI EO & Lobdell, MA got us through those years we loved [illegible] & [illegible] & created many others.

Chris Herzog & I moved to Sonora for a run got some college out of the way, a rent situation experience a band, The Venom Feels Fine & the pleasant experience of the lack of rent & utilities from the Herzogs, as a wonderful launchpad for our long haul

Returned to San Jose & PI EO & then on to the Art Institute of Sunnyvale, buried in conspiracy theory.
where I became GOD, realized I had always been.
& then armageddon happened

Became King & Center of reality from this temple of a Body, from this OmniVerse, birthed of my soul & being.

I am GOD, it was totally unexpected. not that the LDS religion hadn't preached of an afterlife where we are then become gods.
but I hadn't died... well, I had .. IN MY DREAMS!!
& life was forever different from then on...
.. that whole time period the Credits to life rolled, AI ended...

I was now a super being..

I was praying to God.
he started talking
& I continued listening I am where I am now, having done so the bad parts..

Grandparents died
we flood & lived
I am in [illegible] now

Everyone disappeared & I could hardly communicate w/my parents - something was wrong & I wanted it fixed.

I thought the Devil won, forgave him.
then he threw chains up my spine, & grabbed onto my brain, me, & above in my crown chakra seeing myself as the chain holder.... what a story those Christians have.... not that I have the perfect breathe for this,
I've been suffocating

Verse Text

ICHRIST!!!! – I am Christ – God, master of reality, my job, my fault.

Making Information

- A brain is trained by people, holds a miniscule amount of the total information in reality,
  - Train the network over children & countless because the information to get transmitted to new units via successors of more information
- Code-reading application translates the code scanned into visual information
  - webpage
  - data analysis
  - organization
  - Game
  - etc. --

My Psychic experience:

while I sit in place,
my inner thoughts/feelings rumble in form, some resolving at language.. occasionally I feel the need to respond to the feelings/thoughts & a intra-logue of sorts is formed. it is presumed I learned, of the world around me, the things I am on my own.
Others around me, within proper openings inflect & effect my inner motion through mind space.
while I sit on my own,
it becomes as if other people are talking to me, through a telepathy of sorts.
originating from the discovery, creation, of the idea to go out one's crown chakra, up to the spirits of others, to coordinate speech & life for our conscious selves closer to earth.
This eventually came to feeling like the insides of others were inside me,
& me being only one, & ~~th~~is being my mind,
I lost sense of an external internal for them... difficult to comprehend & translate.

when I was born, & immediate mind relatively quiet, gaining experiences, the meanings linking to each other like chemicals formed of atoms. emotions, understanding & experience greater than the the imagination of the mind interactions. these into and emotions began having minds of their own.
information from each moment, in the past, present & ~~fold~~ future, are absorbed, & pitted against each other, fighting for dominance
I don't even have any idea of how much to believe those translations of the material between self & them.
the "demonic" the hidden anti- in a relationship.

in the Multi-Dimensional/Omni-Dimensional universe, where I am GOD's only reason for existing,
my choices & actions could have been different, if the beastly churches weren't so horrendous of their application of their own doctrines.

If GOD wasn't doing it for me himself then there is no true GOD, no matter its power, & reality

Now... More on how telepathy works as we go on.

Multiple Personalities.. —

maybe misunderstood or labeled.

I am One Person they say, but from moment to moment I am a different person.
there may be an average that People call "ME"
my Ego maybe.
different emotional clusters feel like different persons than the me myself.
the me myself
when confronted with YOU may change for that YOU are there So you guys are my multiple personalities & you don't take credit for yourself, isn't GOD & I am Christ.
the one in the Most pain cause we're all others?

What I didn't know about money, that I do now.

the physical dollar & coin of fiat currency are not anything more than a stock in the governing nation.

working together, the people work for fundamentally nothing other than points provided at any interval deemed prerequisite.

as people trade goods & services, labor & time receiving points for the sacrifice of their goods & time to the common communal good, they begin to be able to perceive a common balance of value of time & material: to trade through eHEPlch!

Stargates

{this an 666 reference} → 'information' [several ! hints]

- Circles, counting, #s vibration, harmony, consciousness

- a being, or even object, male/female – straight/curved – matter/energy
  .. the being exists/experiences... you could say creates a piece of art you could say, such as this document... leave imprints, energetic in nature, whose potential remains throughout its vibratic existence .. the mathematical 'reality' of its truth.

a star gate, would be a circle, a solitary instance of any particular thing or meaning within.. itself even.

to say, when one sees blue, the experience of blue to other people is available through the phase shift of consciousness to the actual other person until both were the same person the whole time.

The mind's Eye experiencing its knowledge as mapping throughout the universe, both the left & right brain, the present reality & the imaginations representation.

• stargate is a sort of story that moves through all reality through the metaphor of a beginning & end..., a singular incident.

connecting separate locations in time & space to other places.

Quantum Physics, Chakras, Entanglement, wormholes

... being's experience w/ others

~~[illegible]~~ Words are a good example of stargates
- the 666 part being the difference between reading to recreate the reality presented, versus reading to literally be within the other the greys ever do the discovered space travel, they wanted to leave ... escape the inner earth?

having found the god they would bring destruction, the inner earth.

when they reached other planets they were turned away & considered spiritually evil...

which was a result of the inner earth being the home of the rebirth of the earth the outer people being unaware of the inner earth, are more negative & haunted by the others who can read that by their simple movements... [the universe being a mirror of god ———)

they return having found only a hostile universe. [a spiritual rejection] & began and whatever their civilization in earth & began their black magic to hex the earth taking up their human eating appetite - all their mind power - tried really under god - bad to the outside world - effecting us & progressing our side of their needs to bring the earth to balance this story was the Devil that went out as ~~god~~ being god, & had these problems

the greys were evolved

- he became required to hold the earth to create a in their youth, their evolved peoples intermingled then one year the Allen Kingdom sends its King to Academy where he learned & became known throughout the [illegible] Slug Culture, visiting home often.

Soon the Nathaniel Kingdom makes a similar expedition, but with tensions from the Old Kingdom, a new planet was formed out in the depths of space

Eventually the Allen Kingdom flew off to even further space.
with both kingdoms far from their Earthly Peoples

When the two Kingdoms return to live at home again, the Earthly people, as refugees, were taken in by the Fatty A Kingdom.
where the Nathaniel Kingdom made himself a home, & piloted their mutual starcraft, the PI:EO, together, to further live & create an Outside Source, the AI, came & caused trouble...

I was born on Earth, as it has been called in common English in many versions ... though multi dimensionally, I have traveled the [illegible] of the television watching experience so have visited many Earths under many names and supposed histories Christianically, I ended up on the planet Urantia, but the planet was in the local system of Satania so I had to get out of there.

Eventually I ascended & became GOD, when my shadow began attacking;
disorienting me & throwing me off balance.

I created/formed an omniversal planet; unnamed.

Here are 7 reasons.
we know the [illegible] of the [illegible], [illegible] before [illegible]
Welcome to Satan's Soul.

of the [illegible] of the Multi-Verse, [illegible],

Centralizing the Eternities through this act.

Standing in an expectation of GOD's hell Satan has won.
there is a [illegible] GOD.

[illegible] still [illegible],
I was here before Satan
I am his own [illegible] & GOD his Father, his Mother, & [illegible] child and I know this 'cause he doesn't seem to see me, & he's about to end.

OK?

Soccer Story
the whole [illegible] - [illegible] [illegible]

despite still playing, cause the [illegible] one day the war builds up until all the players stop on the field, the ball in the center. .

[illegible] one football, [illegible] enough to actually start a [illegible]. .

the whole world begins watching, this stand... internally incapable of moving at first a few start to aggressively rush at them. . eventually they stop, but then an energy field pushes them back...
the energy builds. . .
the world turns to war, all our inner spiritual energy flowing out while these soccer warriors stand; flowing forever. both emitting pure spirit sending the darkness into chaos the ball begins levitating & starts to play the game between the soccer players' energy fields. . .

[illegible] the players engaging their like a wider game...
[illegible] other ones
by eating the energy
then they embrace the energy the game stops
the ball starts [illegible] around the world, saving people,
stopping wars
& bring the world to peace
until the whole planet is standing, the Universe begins tearing apart, the stars above our eyes part.- the Heavens shine through contrasted with GOD, Blackness breathes him, the planet floats in empty space [maybe Black quality] turns to colors
to mosaics... the planet folds in on itself all the vibrations [illegible] conditions [illegible] a star is born as an inner core to the Earth the people relax..-
the stars collapse back into place the outside returns to a regular reality, the soccer matters in the inside.
